Russia Told 'Evacuate Hungary Without Any Further Delay'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (INS)—The emergency U.N. assembly demanded Friday night that Russia get out of Hungary "without any further delay" and urged the Soviet Union to cease interfering with urgently needed relief shipments to the Hungarian people.

The 76-nation assembly approved by 48 votes to 11 a five-power resolution charging the Kremlin with brutal suppression of Hungarian patriots in violation of the U.N. charter, and calling for free elections under U.N. auspices.

The entire Soviet bloc voted against the resolution.

Sixteen countries abstained. They included Egypt, Austria, Finland and members of the Afro-Asian bloc.

The global forum went on to endorse a U.S. proposal demanding that Russia and the Soviet-imposed Budapest regime open the country's borders to food, medicine and clothing from the West. The vote was 53 to 9 and 13 abstentions.

Again the Russian bloc voted no and the Afro-Asian group abstained.

The United States announced immediately after the vote that it will contribute one million dollars to aid the Hungarian refugees.

The American contribution will be transmitted to Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold "for immediate use through appropriate channels" to help alleviate the plight of the Hungarian refugees.

The assembly decisively defeated efforts by V. K. Krishna Menon of India to water down the American resolution as to strike out all references to the Soviet military suppression. Amendments to the resolution by India, Ceylon and Indonesia were rejected by 45 votes to 18 and 12 abstentions.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, scoring Menon's efforts to weaken the proposal, declared "there cannot be a double standard of international morality in the world."

Lodge said:

"If we resist brutality in one region, we must resist brutality in the other. If we are going to raise our voices against oppression, if we are going to raise our voices against occupation by foreign troops in one part of the world, then we must be equally steadfast, we must be equally stalwart in the other parts of the world."

An Austrian proposal calling on all governments to render medical supplies, foodstuffs and clothes to help ease the "extreme suffering" of the Hungarian people, was approved by 67 to zero and eight abstentions.

Hungary and Poland, departing from Russia and its other satellites who abstained, voted for the Austrian resolution.

Ethiopia was absent during all the votes.

The voting was preceded by some of the most acrid debate heard in the assembly. Menon clashed twice with Cuban delegate Emilio Nunez-Portoondo and other Latin American delegates who protested against the reticence of the Afro-Asian states against coming out for a strong denunciation of the Soviet actions in Hungary.

CORN YIELD UP

Better than expected corn yields are turning out in north-east and irrigated areas of Nebraska, hiking the crop outlook to 114,830,000 bushels, three million bushels higher than expected a month ago. Story appears on page 13.

Lincolnite Injured

FREDERICK, Md. (UPI)—A Lincoln man listed as Joseph Carter, 23, U.S. Army, was injured in a four-vehicle collision seven miles west of Frederick Friday night which killed two persons and injured nine.

McMoy was the driver of one car and Ziegler drove the other, authorities said.

KEARNEY

KEARNEY, Neb.—Half a million dollars worth of grain and equipment went up in smoke here Friday as a hangar at the Kearney Airport, containing about 100,000 bushels of wheat and 12,000 bushels of soybeans, was destroyed.

The shooting took place in the McDonald home at Bellwood, 10 miles northwest of David City, apparently as a result of domestic troubles, authorities said.

The shooting was witnessed by the couple's 13-year-old daughter, and 8-year-old son and one of the children's friends, Meyenburg said.

Further investigation will continue Saturday, County Attorney Frederic Coufal said.

Mrs. McDonald is survived by a daughter, Hazel, 13; sons, Marvin, 8, and Melvin, 6.

Sponsors Are Sought For New Hungarian Refugees

Local persons or organizations interested in sponsoring Hungarian refugees to Nebraska should address their inquiries to Roland Luedtke, executive secretary of the Governor's Refugee Relief Committee, at the statehouse.

They may also call Dr. Martin Schreder of the Lutheran Refugee Service, the Rev. Carroll Lemmon of Church World Service, or Monsignor R. J. Collins, director of the Catholic Social Welfare Bureau.

Interest has already been indicated through several calls from Lincoln people, the Rev. Mr. Lemmon reported.

RELIEF FUND REACHES $260

Many Americans, in gratitude for the rights of freedom, want to offer encouragement to Hungary by raising $1 million for the relief of anti-communist Hungarian refugees.

Thirteen persons have added a total of $60 to the $200 with which The Journal-Star Printing Co. initiated the fund.

America Ponders Mutual Security Pact For Israel

TENSION EASES A LITTLE

Demo-GOP Leaders More Hopeful After Talk With President

By WARREN ROGERS, JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States was reporting considering a mutual security pact for Israel as a means of further smothering down the battle-torn Middle East.

Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress came away from a 2½-hour White House conference with President Eisenhower voicing optimism and faith in his handling of the tense situation.

Eisenhower was said to have told them that, while no man can foretell the future in the area, the peak of the crisis may have passed.

White House press Secretary James C. Hagerty ruled out any immediate Big Three meeting on the Middle East, and he held out no hope of any quick summit conference, such as Switzerland has suggested. But he left the door open to both ideas should they look better later on.

These were late developments in a jittery situation which found American officials breathing a little easier but still treading softly. The big fear was that some mister might cause Russia to try to carry through with a vague threat to intervene in the Middle East to throw soldiers of Britain, France and Israel out of Egypt.

To avert that threat, the Israelis announced Thursday they were giving up the Sinai Peninsula which they had wrested from Egypt. The British who with the French had halted halfway through their military seizure of the Suez Canal, announced Friday they are replacing assault troops with regular soldiers and de-emphasizing air power on the nearby Mediterranean island of Cyprus.

25 Attend Briefing

Eisenhower gave 23 congressional leaders a briefing on the situation Friday. He also showed them a newsreel of the street fighting in Budapest which the Russians eventually crushed by moving in a reported 19 divisions and 4,500 tanks.

Nebraskan Killed By Ammonia Spray

OMAHA (AP)—L. J. Lutz, 23, Union, Neb., was killed Friday when sprayed with liquid ammonia from a broken hose at the Allied Chemical and Dye Corp. plant.

Lutz was loading anhydrous ammonia into a customer's truck when the hose broke.

Lutz is survived by his wife, a son and a daughter.

Overload Electric Circuit Is Blamed In Death Of Five

SPOKANE, Wash. (UPI) — An overloaded electrical circuit was blamed Friday for a flash fire that killed all five children of 26-year-old Mrs. Jaquelin Lair.

Mrs. Lair agreed with fire inspectors that the wiring system caused the blaze, which destroyed her small frame home.

"I figured it must have been that," she said. "I tried to turn the lights on upstairs but they wouldn't go on."

Her four sons were asleep upstairs when the fire broke out shortly after 11 p.m. Her daughter Laura, 6, was in a downstairs bedroom.

Across Ceiling
"I was ironing and laid down on the couch after putting the youngsters to bed to rest before I ironed some more," she said. "I was awakened by the smell of smoke and then I could see flames across the ceiling. I couldn't get back to Laura."

Mrs. Lair, whose husband was in the county jail on a nonsupport charge, said she made it upstairs once and planned to throw the boys to safety but couldn't get the windows open in the dark.

"Steve was awake and crying, 'Mama, Mama,'" she sobbed. "The other boys were asleep."

Steven, 9; Jack, 5; Merle, 7, and Timmy, 2, died in their rooms, apparently from suffocation.

Gets Jail Term
Albert J. McIntosh, 31, of 424 No. 17th was given a 60-day jail term by the Lancaster District Judge John Polk on a fraudulent check charge. McIntosh has pleaded guilty to issuing a $10 no-account check Sept. 15 on a Lincoln bank with intent to defraud.

Burning Aircraft Reported

NEW YORK (AP) — The Coast Guard started a search in the Atlantic Friday night after a Liberian freighter reported seeing an aircraft in flames some 400 miles north of Bermuda.

"One search plane has reached the scene, but it has reported back it has seen nothing," the Coast Guard said.

The Coast Guard also reported it had made a check with aircraft lines operating over the Atlantic and no planes were reported missing.

The report on the plane came from the Captain Lyras. It radioed that it had spotted an aircraft in flames overhead.

Later, the Lyras said it had seen what appeared to be a life raft with a light on it about four miles away.

The ship, however, said rain and heavy seas were present and it lost the raft in the darkness.

A Coast Guard officer said the ship S.S. Sanisco had reported seeing a plane overhead earlier and had flashed a light on the aircraft.

There was some speculation on whether or not the light on the plane might have been seen by the Lyras and was thought to be flames, the officer said.

Boy, 14 Months, Killed In Washer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A 14-month-old boy climbed into his mother's automatic washing machine Friday while she was in a bedroom sorting out more dirty clothes and was killed by the agitator action.

The victim was Peter Vasso, only child of George and Miriam Vasso.

Dr. Hall said more information about the scholarship program will be sent to Nebraska high schools in December.

Farmer Got Tired Of Gathering Bills; He Finds $25,000

WEATHERFORD, Tex. (UPI) —

Dairy farmer Oscar Womack said Friday he found so much money on his farm that "I just got tired of picking it up and quit."

He sent his mother to the First National Bank here with the bills he did gather in. Vice President Fred Measures said he's certain that some or all of about $25,000 in currency may be good money.

The Secret Service was telephoned, and the money will be sent to them in Dallas. Womack, 27, arrived at the bank sometime after his mother. When told the money may be genuine he promptly left, saying, "Guess I'll go back and pick up some more."

Mrs. Lair, whose husband was in the county jail on a nonsupport charge, said she made it upstairs once and planned to throw the boys to safety but couldn't get the windows open in the dark.

"Steve was awake and crying, 'Mama, Mama,'" she sobbed. "The other boys were asleep."

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Screen Star Elizabeth Taylor announced Friday that her marriage to film producer Michael Todd faces a year's wait because she has decided to obtain a California divorce from actor Michael Wilding.

The actress had announced previously that she would obtain a divorce in Mexico or in Nevada "in order to marry Mike as soon as possible."

Association's 25th annual convention were advised Friday that "many avenues are open in the journalistic profession to young persons seeking this career—but you must bring something with you."

The remarks were made by Miss Marguerite Davis, head of the Chicago bureau of United Press and keynote speaker for the convention meeting on the University of Nebraska campus.

Miss Davis outlined the four most important qualifications for journalists to bring to their careers: "Curiosity...the word 'why' is the most important one in a reporter's vocabulary; skepticism...ask yourself if this is true, if not, why not; honesty to your profession...remember your primary purpose is to report the news, and develop an informed background...read your newspapers and study all news reports so you'll know what's going on."

"The best preparation for a news career is a university journalism school and work on a college newspaper," Miss Davis said. This will teach a person to write "concisely and with color," she added, and "you run into criticism which you'll get for the rest of your life."

Highlighting some of her most interesting experiences in the newspaper field, Miss Davis praised the Nebraska Legislature which she covered when she was Lincoln United Press bureau manager.

She said Nebraska's practice of holding open legislative committee hearings was an excellent and unique one.

Following her address, Miss Davis was questioned by the student press with queries ranging from salaries to the best methods to develop specialized journalistic careers.

Challenge

Another speaker told the students that persons between 18 and 29 face a tremendous challenge in meeting the nation's expanding population and economic growth.

P. D. Allen of Chicago said that although there are fewer persons in this youthful group, they are the ones who are going to be called upon to carry the load.

Allen, president of Maclean-Hunter Publishing Corp., told students at the annual banquet that by the time they are out of school the population will be pushing 200 million and the national income $600 billion.

"This represents a lot of goods to be sold," he said. "It will be necessary for a free press, radio and television to be able to carry the ads and sales efforts."

New Products

For example, he said, 50 per cent of General Electric's sales are in products unknown 10 years ago. Newspapers, radio and television were necessary for their promotion, he said.

Allen told the high schoolers that the journalism field will need 70 per cent more people in 1965 than it does today.

Eleanor Kessler, student from Hastings, presided at the earlier meeting at which Miss Davis

Those Great Vistas

Old Mother Nature is to be credited with a great sensitiveness in providing an authentic fitting climax to an epic journey by two naval balloonists.

After soaring to a record altitude of more than 70,000 feet, they came to earth by landing in one of our favorite Sandhill valleys near the tiny hamlet of Brownlee. The balloon's crew—Naval Commanders Malcolm D. Ross and Morton L. Lewis, both of Washington, D. C.—had soared in the air to a height of 76,000, to be exact, a little more than 14 miles in the impenetrable blackness of the stratosphere. Their balloon flight had taken them to a region of magnificent vistas—to a dark, blue-black sky—with earth a curtain of darkness underneath.

We Are On Our Way

It is significant that in the announcement of 1956 Nobel prize awards Americans got five of the eight given for discoveries in science—a science that included physics, chemistry, medicine and physiology.

That is a far cry from earlier times.

From 1901 until 1940 Americans won but 15 of the 127 science awards.

The turning point came in 1940 and between that year and 1955 Americans won 29 of the 39 awards.

The United States arrived late in the scientific research field. A land so richly endowed with natural resources, so easily available, was largely confronted with the problem of developing them, and interest turned naturally to the field of invention and engineering. Less favored nations perforce turned to the laboratory and to research while they sought the make difference for their paucity of resources they gained infinitely both in techniques and products of research. But late years have required the United States to emphasize research and the successful results are showing up in both the Nobel awards and in the market.

There is no question now of the permanence of this great expansion in the field of science and there is no question but that young America will strive to fill the field. It is at once a provocative and a gainful activity of greater potential opportunity than any other.

The question of getting education to fit the new requirements has already been answered. The change must and will be made. That which confronts the nation now is the method and speed of change. The quicker at that the better.

End Of A Good Chapter

What are the rewards and the satisfaction of sacrifice and vision?

In the case of Lincoln's water improvement program, voters who willingly approved the burden of an $8.5 million bond debt can find their answer in a statement made by the

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

It may be too much to expect world tensions will have subsided to any substantial extent by the time the holiday season makes a world more conscious of the Prince of Peace. Nevertheless millions of Americans breathed easier when Israel notified President Eisenhower of its willingness to withdraw its forces from Egypt upon conclusion of satisfactory arrangements with the United Nations for a Middle East police force. That decision could not other than diminish the threat of war.

The one objective which finds all Americans in agreement is this country's desire for peace. It was so dominant in the presidential election last Tuesday. The disposition was to credit Ike with a great personal triumph at the polls. If that makes people happier, particularly those who voted for the President, then by all means they should chalk that up as the basis for Mr. Eisenhower's victory.

There is some reason for believing, however, that a marked shift in sentiment came at a time when developments in the Middle East and bloody fighting in Hungary in southeastern Europe added to the fears that the fighting there might slowly take on the character of global conflict. Among callers late in the week was one who had visited a number of states in the two weeks preceding the election. He told us that the shift which took place as a result of the mounting danger of war obscured all domestic policies, and blotted every other consideration. We are not out of the woods in the Middle East until Israel and the Arab nations find it possible to agree upon a long-range program. All that has happened is more or less temporary and naturally subject to change.

We may expect armament costs to increase, if anything. Our expenditures for national defense in the last four years have averaged $43 billion a year. This figure includes foreign aid, plus stockpiling, plus funds for atomic development. It does call for an expenditure of three and a third billion every 30 days. Thus far the American people have been able to bear that burden without any sacrificing their living standards. On the contrary, while we have been pouring out billions for armament living standards have been rising. Most individuals have enjoyed more in the form of necessities and luxuries than any other generation of Americans, with the possible exception of the farmer.

At this time, it should be noted, it is the heavy expenditure for armament that has kept people busy, employed at high wages. In some of the larger industrial communities any marked decrease in armament expenditures, we are told, will result in widespread unemployment. But there can be plenty to keep us occupied with needed, useful undertakings. We are lagging in conservation development.

The biggest job that confronts this country is to rebuild its underground water supply. We can spend billions in restoring the forests, improving the fields, developing a long-range program that will rebuild soil and contribute to its continuing fertility. We have been a fortunate people. Our wealth has seemed to be inexhaustible. But we have drawn upon it year after year until in many areas we have impoverished ourselves. No nation stands to gain more from a durable peace than the United States.

We look forward to the time when armament costs can be cut in half. It may tax the imagination to contemplate a program which will keep people busy and prosperous when the spending for defense falls off sharply. The alternative is not pleasant to contemplate. We should be able to find a better way than to pour out billions and billions for weapons which become obsolete within a few months or a few years. That could prove the greatest challenge of our times.

city's engineering consultants, Black & Veatch of Kansas City, Mo. Writing a report in connection with the city's plan to sell the last $2.5 million in bonds as a part of the $8.5 million program, Black & Veatch said

The water works facilities available upon completion of the current program will provide an adequate and dependable water supply for the present needs of the city and substantial reserves for continued growth."

There is satisfaction that Lincoln has embarked upon a sound and sensible program of community improvement. There, also, is assurance that Lincoln can move ahead with even greater growth in the years ahead without the fear or sudden realization that it has failed to provide for its people or that its people have neglected to help themselves.

With the confidence of its people and the vision and wisdom of those who carried out the program of improvement, Lincoln has moved out into an enviable position among cities of the nation. The city can invite industrial growth with its accompanying rewards and can promote without restraint the beautification of its land.

Few indeed, if any, could be found who can look back now or in the future with any regrets of the action they took in putting the water system on a sure foundation. Even this past summer, the rewards of an expanded water supply were found in the satisfaction of a big demand for water and the years ahead will bring bigger and bigger demands which will bear the fruit of today's planning.

Editorial Of The Day

Gangsters Poor Police

(From The Milwaukee Journal)

In proposing that the United States join Soviet forces to "crush aggression" in Egypt, Russia is like a thug trying to cover up murder by offering to help police catch a pickpocket.

Engaged in brutal, barbaric crushing of freedom-loving Hungarians, Russia is violating every code of international conduct. The Soviet rulers stand once again before the world as the gangsters they are. They are ignoring the United Nations demand that they "cease immediately . . . military operations against the Hungarian people and withdraw . . . forces from that country."

Yet at that very minute, Russia points the finger at France and England—charging violation of United Nations mandates, crying "aggression," piously threatening to use "force" to bring peace, indignantly shouting "colonialism."

To join forces with such gangsters would be, as the White House promptly said, "unthinkable." It would, furthermore, violate the United Nations Charter—for the UN assembly has demanded that fighting stop in Egypt and that UN forces enter to stabilize the situation. For any other forces to enter the area would be to commit aggression and defy the UN. The United States, far from joining such an adventure in international irresponsibility would have to oppose such action.

Nixon Next Up For Face Lifting

IKE TO LOSE 4 CABINET CHIEFS

It looks as if President Eisenhower would have four vacancies to fill in his new cabinet.

The four who want to retire to private life are John Foster Dulles, secretary of State; George Humphrey, secretary of the Treasury; Charles E. Wilson, secretary of Defense; and Marion Folson, secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Washington — The day before elections President Eisenhower had a friendly talk with his understudy, Vice President Nixon, in which he sketched some of his hopes and ambitions for the future. White House friends say the talk was most significant.

The President knew then that, despite some of the earlier fears of his associates, he was certain to be re-elected. So he outlined to Nixon his plans to rebuild the Republican party in his own image.

Part of what he told Nixon he later told the television audience when he made his brief election speech and outlined his plans for modern Republicanism.

Nixon, of course, has belonged to the opposite wing of the GOP. When in the Senate he voted against practically all the Roosevelt-Truman measures which Eisenhower has largely embraced. Nixon's voting record shows that he opposed reciprocal trade, whereas Eisenhower has staunchly supported it. Nixon opposed foreign aid, whereas Eisenhower has pushed it personally. Nixon also voted to reduce school lunches, crop insurance, social security and the scope of minimum wages. Ike's program has been just the opposite.

One reason why the conservative wing of the GOP demanded Nixon on the ticket was because of his vigorous record of opposing so-called New Deal measures.

In this pre-election talk with Eisenhower, however, White House friends say that Nixon pledged his support to Ike's dreams for a modern Republican party. White House advisers also say that the "new Nixon" who followed the "high road" during the campaign will continue to be the "new Nixon."

Not Sure Reds A Happy Family

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — The news from

Melbourne, where we'll soon be met, is that the Russian athletes on hand are just one big happy family and the East and West Germans, though divided by a yawning ideological chasm, are traveling and living together in practically congenial bliss.

This doesn't jibe with the foggy politicizing which surrounds muscular play behind the Iron Curtain, where athletes have more than commissars than rub-downs.

A Bucharest Commy sheet announced: "Under the bourgeois regimes sport was a pastime for playboys, and also served for the exploitation, chauvinistic incitement and brutalization of men—as it still is and does in capitalist countries. In Romania sport has become the property of the masses..."

Some Communist sports officials sound like a burlesque of a grieving Old Glad who, between tears over a 73-0 loss by his old team, sets about to knife the coach.

"Recently, the crisis which prevailed in the field of Polish soccer during the last few years has ripened into a catastrophe," Radio Warsaw intoned recently. "The sources of the present disastrous state of affairs prevailing in Polish soccer go back to 1948, at which time some people in charge of sports (appointed from above) who were anxious to uphold the system of the People's Democracy introduced chaos into the field."

The speaker called for "liquidation" of certain sports officials and groups and "exile" for others. (Ed. Note: The Poles may have something there.)

U.S. Foreign Policy Next Great Debate

By DORIS FLEESON

WASHINGTON — "Israel has proved her right to be called a western democracy; she won the war and lost the peace."

The speaker was Brigadier Yigal Alon of the Israeli army, launching here last summer with correspondents who knew the Middle East.

Alon was in charge of the brilliant Negev campaign which contributed so greatly to the original Israeli military triumph and in turn to establishment of the state of Israel. During that campaign he had frequent visits under a flag of truce with a capable and brooding young Egyptian officer, Major Nasser, who discussed with him Egypt's humiliations and her future.

Perhaps Alon contributed largely to the always pessimistic Israeli estimates of the now Prime Minister Nasser's plans and potentialities. What is certain is that in his useful description of his country's status, he gave as good a clue to the background of present events as has been contained in the voluminous record of the United Nations proceedings last week.

Israel intends this time to bring the peace. No government could last there now which did not pursue that course.

It is not an area in which Congress can act effectively. It can judge and change and help to shape, but the initiative must come from the White House and State Department.

Thus another "great debate" is the imminent post-election prospect rather than the customary presidential honeymoon.

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

Jesus, Thy Blood And Righteousness

Jesus, Thy blood and righteousness
My beauty are, my glorious dress;
Midst flaming worlds, in these arrayed,
With joy shall I lift up my head.

Bold shall I stand in Thy great day,
For who aught to my charge shall lay?
Fully absolved thro' these I am,
From sin and fear, from guilt and shame.

The holy, meek, unspotted Lamb,
Who from the Father's bosom came,
Who died for me, e'en me to atone,
Now for my Lord and God I own.

Lord, I believe Thy precious blood,
Which, at the mercy-seat of God,
Forever doth for sinners plead,
For me, e'en for my soul, was shed.

Lord, I believe were sinners more
Than sands upon the ocean shore,
Thou hast for all a ransom paid,
For all a full atonement made.

Count Nicholas Ludwig Zinzendorf known in early eighteenth century religious circles for his support of the Moravian Church and his missionary ministry for that group, was born in Dresden, Germany, in 1700. All of his hymns—and he turned out a good many of them during his life-time—were written in German. This one was produced in 1739 during a sea voyage which the author was making from St. Thomas in the West Indies, and was translated almost immediately by the Rev. John Wesley, famous English churchman and founder of Methodism. It made its bow to English-speaking Christians in a volume of "Hymns and Sacred Poems" which Wesley brought out in 1740.

Even in early youth, Zinzendorf was serious and deeply religious. It is said that his conversion to Christianity resulted from a viewing of the painting, "Eccō Homo," the thorn-crowned Christ, during a visit one day to a Dusseldorf art gallery and a reading of his hymn, "Jesus, Thy Blood and Righteousness" suggests that he was thinking again of the picture of the atoning Saviour when he penned his verses in 1739.

Speaking Up

Every once in awhile I resolve to become a better conversationalist. Theoretically, this should not be difficult. There is much room for improvement, and I know a lot of words. Also, I have experienced almost as much weather as anybody. The way I see it, I have all the raw materials for a good conversation as anybody could wish.

My trouble has always been that I cannot think of anything to say. Somebody says, "How are you?" and I say, "Fine," and right there we're stymied. Then, after while, I say, "And how are you?" and he says, "Fine," and we're right back at the same old dead end. You know how it is. It would be easier if a man had an infestation of elm blight, or something, so he would have some other answer than "Fine."

Some Communist sports officials sound like a burlesque of a grieving Old Glad who, between tears over a 73-0 loss by his old team, sets about to knife the coach.

"Recently, the crisis which prevailed in the field of Polish soccer during the last few years has ripened into a catastrophe," Radio Warsaw intoned recently. "The sources of the present disastrous state of affairs prevailing in Polish soccer go back to 1948, at which time some people in charge of sports (appointed from above) who were anxious to uphold the system of the People's Democracy introduced chaos into the field."

The speaker called for "liquidation" of certain sports officials and groups and "exile" for others. (Ed. Note: The Poles may have something there.)

such as physics and chemistry, but was found all along the line. He noted the university lost two of its top history instructors last year because of the competition. The total budget does not include cash accounts, including the athletic department, which is estimated during the 1957-58 biennium at $16,500,000. This account for 1955-57 was tabulated at $15,789,000. Most of the funds in this department are earmarked for special purposes and do not apply to the general fund operating budget.

Fund Expires

Also not included in the institutional building levy of 1.1 that expires this year after 10 years of operation, this fund, used mostly for institution construction, also can apply to needed major repairs.

The chancellor said the University has about $500,000 in needed capital repairs and if an institutional levy is not included on or about the same present level, the University will be in the hole to that amount.

In his general report, the chancellor said the University "is facing a crisis—a real crisis—and the 1957-58 budget deals with it realistically."

"We believe that we must be honest and forthright in explaining our problems to the citizens of the state. The seriousness of the situation is reflected in our hard-core budget. The proposed appropriation proposes no new activities."

Six Sources

The operating budget of $29,150,125 is supported by six different sources of revenue. These include: Student fees—$2,025,000; federal appropriations—$2,522,000, most of which is earmarked for special purposes; University endowment—$90,000; vocational education—$50,000; county levy for University Hospital—$300,000; and state taxes—$23,363,125.

The new budget calls for an addition in student fees of $185,106, which will not be collected by increasing the fees. It is anticipated that student enrollment will increase by 1,500 during the next two years.

Of the increase for the University Hospital, the chancellor said that the "competition for nurses, medical personnel, technologists and labor has been vicious and unrelenting." The recent withdrawal from service of 34 beds, he added, reflects the "extremely serious financial plight of the hospital."

The Only One

He noted the hospital is the "only state institution providing general medical care for indigent Nebraskans." He said "We must recognize that you cannot economize when human suffering is at stake."

One of the major items included in the new budget is $1.3 million for maintenance. Included in this iday, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gardels in Wilcox.

And included in our guest list this week are some very special visitors. Arriving at the A. E. Bressette home on Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Joe LaPres, who were married last Saturday in Muskegon, Mich., where they are now residing. It was a delightful surprise visit for the Bressettes, for they had not seen Mr. LaPres since he lived with them in England three years ago.

And recent callers at the home of Capt. Everett Terry were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Greeley of Hamlet, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Greeley and Clark, of Wauneta. The visitors remained in Park Manor Wednesday and Thursday.

Young Tommy Hayes had a special dinner guest at his home on Thursday evening, for his mother was hostess to his grade teacher at Holmes School, Miss Jeanie Heerman. Tommy's sister, Ellen, also was on hand to assist her mother in the hostess department.

PATRICIAN HEIGHTS

We must admit that Patrician Heights is as activity-bound as the busy Park Manor area. We heard this morning that Capt. and Mrs. George Burdis and their daughter, Mariann Franke, arrived Thursday to spend a couple of days with Capt. and Mrs. Robert Hoffman.

And arriving this week from Canonsburg, Pa., was Mrs. Fred Barnhill who is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Creal and their children, Steve, Tom, Marcia, Danny, Terri and Mike. Mrs. Barnhill is en route to Denver, Colo., where she will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Oursler and Dickie.

We understand that Mrs. Creal was hostess at a coffee on Friday afternoon in courtesy to her mother, Mrs. Barnhill. Included in the guest list were Mrs. Don Desch, Mrs. Harry Abrahams, Mrs. John Churchill, Mrs. Howard Hadley, Mrs. Newell McGrew, Mrs. Jerry Wahl, Mrs. Donald Dankers, Mrs. Jean Shnell, Mrs. Dale Newsham, Mrs. Roy Loudon, Mrs. J. Lynn Smith and Mrs. Jake Kohler.

To complete the Patrician Heights news we will tell you about the Girl Scout Troop, of which Mrs. Robert D. Hoffman is the leader. The group will participate in an Investiture Service at Sacred Heart School, Tuesday evening at 7:30. There are 28 members in Mrs. Hoffman's Troop.

Young Tommy Hayes had a special dinner guest at his home on Thursday evening, for his mother was hostess to his grade teacher at Holmes School, Miss Jeanie Heerman. Tommy's sister, Ellen, also was on hand to assist her mother in the hostess department.

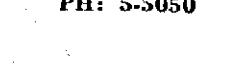

Understand that Maj. and Mrs. Paul Ecelbarger entertained six neighborhood couples at bridge on Friday evening. After the card game the group enjoyed refreshments and spent the remainder of the evening informally.

Fall vacationers from Park Manor were Capt. and Mrs. Walter Brock and their children, Charles, Kim and Debbie. The Brocks visited Mr. Brock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brock, in Birmingham, Ala., and spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Davis in Oxford, Miss., before returning home last Wednesday.

Week-end travelers were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Christensen and their children, Steve and Sue. The Christensens visited Mrs. Christensen's sister and her family.

Town Talk

THE MOST interesting Town Talk these days involves the approaching marriage of Anne Kinder Dwinell to William Laurie Porter of New York City which will take place on Friday afternoon, Nov. 23, at the home of Mrs. Dwinell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Kinder.

Mrs. Dwinell and her daughter, Jean, arrive Nov. 17 from Chicago, and also on the Saturday arrivals list will be Mr. Porter who planes in from New York City.

MRS. DWINELL and Mr. Porter will have perhaps one day to call their own — the day they arrive — but beginning the next day their social schedule is an extremely heavy one.

On Sunday, Nov. 18, the two will be honored by Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ferciot who have invited guests for an hors d'oeuvres party and supper at their home.

ON MONDAY'S calendar is the dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lawrence will be host and hostess at the University Club honoring Mrs. Dwinell and Mr. Porter. Their guest list will include only members of the family.

And the Tuesday party to compliment Mrs. Dwinell and Mr. Porter is the 5:30 o'clock to 7 o'clock party planned by Mr. and Mrs. George Holley.

THE wedding will take place at 4:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon, and the ceremony will be followed by a party at the University Club.

Drought-Hit Farmers Ask Group For Hay Aid

By RICHARD FELLMAN
Star Staff Writer

Another big problem of what to do and how to do it faced the Nebraska State Drought Committee meeting in Lincoln Friday. The question: What can be done to help drought-stricken farmers buy hay?

The problem was brought up by requests from two counties — Sioux, in the extreme northeast corner of the state, and Hitchcock, in the extreme southwest — to begin a subsidy program to allow the purchase of hay at reduced prices.

Other business considered by the committee included the designation of a dozen more counties as drought emergency areas, thus allowing farmers within them to buy surplus grains at reduced prices.

Actions

The committee took the following action on the county requests: Cass County — placed in the program.

Johnson, Otoe and Lancaster — recommended for the emergency program.

Kearney and Red Willow — recommended approval for all dry land farms.

Wayne, Frontier, Thurston, Pierce and Custer — tabled until the next meeting.

The group of Johnson, Otoe and Lancaster counties were recommended not in their entirety but in spots, the particular areas to be determined by the county Farmers Home Administration committee.

Frank Reece of Valentine, chairman of the drought committee, explained that the request for the hay program grew out of difficulty in obtaining hay in certain areas of the state, in spite of the fact that Nebraska sells hay to other states in far greater quantities than it buys.

He said that both South Dakota and Kansas have the type of hay program which the two Nebraska counties requested, and that the program operated on a co-operative basis between the state and the federal government, on a match-the-cost plan.

According to Ed Hoyt, state agricultural director, who sat in at the meeting, Nebraska currently has no funds available for this type of program, with the possible exception of a $50,000 emergency fund of the governor, which he said was set up by the Legislature primarily for such things as flood or tornado relief.

Reece said that there is enough hay in Nebraska to meet the needs, but with the price subsidy in neighboring states, there is fear that prices will go up. The price support in other states has taken

Drought-Hit Farmers Ask Group For Hay Aid

By RICHARD FELLMAN
Star Staff Writer

Another big problem of what to do and how to do it faced the Nebraska State Drought Committee meeting in Lincoln Friday. The question: What can be done to help drought-stricken farmers buy hay?

The problem was brought up by requests from two counties—Sioux, in the extreme northeast corner of the state, and Hitchcock, in the extreme southwest—to begin a subsidy program to allow the purchase of hay at reduced prices.

Other business considered by the committee included the designation of a dozen more counties as drought emergency areas, thus allowing farmers within them to buy surplus grains at reduced prices.

Actions

The committee took the following action on the county requests:

Cass County—placed in the program.

Johnson, Otoe and Lancaster—recommended for the emergency program.

Kearney and Red Willow—recommended approval for all dry land farms.

Dakota—turned down.

Wayne, Frontier, Thurston, Pierce and Custer—tabled until the next meeting.

The group of Johnson, Otoe and Lancaster counties were recommended not in their entirety but in spots, the particular areas to be determined by the county Farmers Home Administration committee.

Frank Reece of Valentine, chairman of the drought committee, explained that the request for the hay program grew out of difficulty in obtaining hay in certain areas of the state, in spite of the fact that Nebraska sells hay to other states in far greater quantities than it buys.

He said that both South Dakota and Kansas have the type of hay program which the two Nebraska counties requested, and that the program operated on a co-operative basis between the state and the federal government, on a match-the-cost plan.

Reece said that there is enough hay in Nebraska to meet the needs, but with the price subsidy in neighboring states, there is fear that prices will go up. The price support in other states has taken the form of a $7.50 a ton reduction, through the freight rate.

25 Per Cent

Reece pointed out, however, that this hay program would not help all the farmers. He said that less than 25 per cent would be helped.

Attending the meeting, in addition to Reece, were W. O. Collet, state director of the Farmers Home Administration; Ralph Cole of Holdrege, farmer member of the committee, and Clyde Noyes of the Extension Service. Charley Clarke of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, served as secretary, sitting in for Robert Webb, ASC administrative officer, who was out of the city.

Ike's Total Vote Rises

Democrats' Margin in House Widens

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's total vote climbed Friday to 34,750,946, or 9,323,585 more than the 25,427,361 Adlai Stevenson got.

Meanwhile, the Democrats seemed likely to have a wider margin in House seats than the 232-231 edge they held in the 84th Congress.

Already assured of 232 seats, the Democrats led in three of the four House races still remaining to be decided.

Two-Vote Lead

Results in one of these, New Jersey's 13th District, may be come official Tuesday. Rep. b) can Norman Roth had a lead of just two votes there over Rep. Alfred D. Sistianni, Democrat, in the unofficial count.

Democrats led in these other three:

Missouri 11th — Rep. Morgan Moulder (D) against George H. Miller (R)

Nebraska 3rd—Lawrence Brock (D) against Rep. Robert D. Hurlston (R)

Washington 4th—Frank Lefoux (D) against Rep. Hal Holmes (R)

One more House race was finally decided Friday with Rep. Carl Perkins (D) winning over Scott Craft (R) in Kentucky's 7th District.

When returns were in from all but 3,433 of the nation's 154,869 precincts, the combined Eisenhower-Stevenson vote was 60,178,307. This compared with 56,242,433 they shared in 1952—33,927,441 for Eisenhower then and 27,314,992 for Stevenson.

Another Record

Eisenhower's 1952 popular vote set a record for Presidential candidates and his 1956 vote already has set another.

The Senate races have all been completed and the Democrats will go into the new Congress with the same 49-47 majority they had in the session which ended this year.

Wanted Forgers Make 'Business' Trip To Lincoln

Lincoln police believe two of the country's most-wanted forgers recently paid a "business" trip to the city.

Det. Clarence Schwartz said he believes the pair, Robert L. Gonsalas of Boston, Mass., and Barbara R. De Nopoli of Syracuse, N.Y., are responsible for 10 worthless checks totaling more than $250 which were cashed at Lincoln drug stores during a 24-hour period.

Schwartz said persons who cashed the checks, which were drawn on a Lincoln bank, have identified the De Nopoli woman as the one who cashed them. He said he forwarded them to the FBI to check handwriting on the checks with samples of Gonsalas handwriting. Schwartz said the pair is wanted in five states.

Court Upholds District Ruling In Tax Case

The State Supreme Court upheld the Holt County District Court in its dismissal of an action brought by Fred E. Boettcher, and 18 other taxpayers in the county.

Seeking an injunction against collection of taxes based on 1955 valuations which exceeded those of the previous year, the taxpayers contended the new valuations were erroneous in employment of an outside firm of appraisers.

They also challenged the legality and constitutionality of steps leading to the assessments.

Not Void

But the Supreme Court said an assessor's valuations are not rendered void by the fact that he may not have inspected the real estate and may have relied on the word of some other appraiser.

Plaintiffs did not state that they ever intended to revalue open to taxpayers' better wish to protest valuations, the court added.

In other action Friday, the Supreme Court affirmed Cedar County District Court action in a case in which a jury awarded Frank Van Winkle $11,500 in a personal injury suit against Robert L. Wagner, doing business as Fertilizer and Chemical Supply Co., and Roger Wagner Jr.

Reversed

The court also reversed a judgment of the Douglas County District Court which had granted a new trial after a jury found against Elizabeth Borsen who had charged negligence on the part of two Omaha garage operators.

She had alleged that the operators Milton and Max Moskowitz negligently failed to find or correct a defect in her car with the result that it was involved in an accident.

Kearney Man Loses Life In Farm Blaze

Lincoln Star Special
KEARNEY, Neb. — The body of Albert More, 62, was found early Friday after his farm home nine miles southwest of Kearney burned down late Thursday.

His badly-burned body was discovered at 8 a.m. Friday, according to Buffalo County Sheriff Lloyd Frank, after firemen were unable to find any trace of Mr. More Thursday night.

When the fire was discovered by a neighbor, the kitchen was already in flames and the Kearney and Elm Creek Fire Departments were unable to save the house.

Mr. More, who was a bachelor and lived alone, burned wood and his chimney had caught on fire several times previously, Sheriff Frank said.

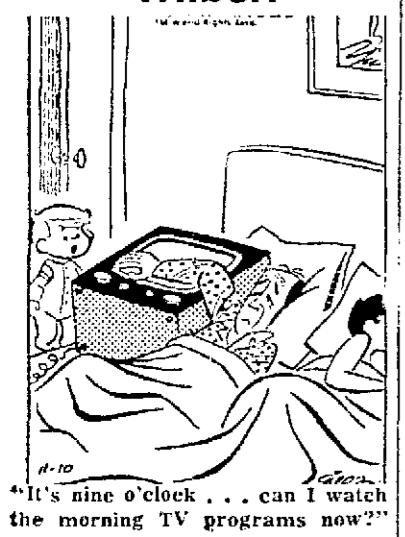

A lifetime resident of the Kearney area, Mr. More was a graduate of Kearney High School and Kearney State Teachers College. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday at the Anderson-Johnson Funeral Home in Kearney. The Rev. Harvey Schroeder will officiate.

Mr. More is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mae Holoubek of Kearney.

Nebraska's freshman football team used a pair of pony halfbacks and a husky defensive line to beat the Kansas State yearlings 15-7 at Memorial Stadium Friday afternoon.

The victory climaxed a perfect season for Coach Gene Stauber's freshman. Last week they beat Iowa State 20-14 in their only other game.

Ben Cacioppo, an Omaha South product, and Bob Brandt of Denison, Ia., were the two halfbacks who led the Little Red in a 15-point second quarter.

An aggressive line, led by guard Pat Fitzgerald, kept the young Wildcats well in check except for one burst in the third quarter. Kansas State made only 30 yards rushing in the first half, and had a net loss of three in the fourth quarter.

Cacioppo ran 16 yards for one touchdown and kicked a 20-yard field goal. Brandt passed 11 yards to Roger Brede of Ainsworth for the other Husker touchdown, and set up Cacioppo's TD sprint with a pass interception.

A short Kansas State punt and a 15-yard penalty against the Wildcats put Nebraska in position for its first touchdown drive, which covered 38 yards.

Jim Hergenreter gained 13 yards and Cacioppo dashed 18 yards around the K-State right side en route to the touchdown.

Cacioppo's run put the ball on the nine but a six-yard loss and Brandt's short smash left the young Cornhuskers in a third-down situation on the K-State 11.

Quarterback Harry Tully, a North Platte athlete, called for an option play. He lateralized to Brandt, who spotted Brede unguarded in the end zone.

Brandt's soft lob to Brede made it 6-0 with only 1:20 gone in the second period.

Cacioppo, who was later to kick a 20-yard field goal from a rather difficult angle, missed the conversion attempt.

Cacioppo's goal from the 10-yard line iced the Nebraska lead to 9-0 with six minutes gone in the second period.

The Huskers drove to the K-

State five but faced a fourth-and-five situation, took a five-yard delay penalty to get the kicking tee into the game and then left it up to Ben.

A 32-yard pass from Joe Miller to Gary Welton of Louisville carried Nebraska into position for the field goal after Brede had recovered one of Kansas State's nine fumbles.

On the first Kansas State scrimmage playing following the field goal, John Salmons passed.

Brandt grabbed the toss on the Nebraska 42 and returned it 30 yards to the Kansas State 28.

Jim Hergenreter, Brandt and Cacioppo moved the ball to the 16, and then Cacioppo left end on a near scoring scamper with 2:45 to play in the half.

Kansas State rallied in the third quarter to show some of the scoring punch they must have used in dealing the Kansas U. freshman a 34-13 defeat earlier.

George Whitely, hard-running

Negro halfback, capped a 63-yard scoring drive with a two-yard smash through the Nebraska left side. The march took 10 plays, including a 17-yard pass from Salmons to Jim Vader, and a 21-yard run by Mickey Martorano.

Martorano's run was the only long scamper the Husker defenders allowed.

The Wildcats never threatened after their touchdown drive, although they were in Husker territory several times. The game ended in an exchange of fumbles—each was guilty of nine.

The hard-hitting Huskers blocked one K-State punt (Don Olson of Grand Island led the charge), threw the Wildcats for big losses on key plays, and sent two opponents—Gerald Giffin and Jim Mechling—home with mild brain concussions.

Davis Gets 4 TDs In 54-12 Victory

By BOB McCOY

Star Sports Staff Writer

Lincoln High, strictly a running team for the first eight games this season, added a little seasoning to its attack with Northeast's favorite ingredient, the forward pass and the result was a balanced and powerful attack which swamped the Rockets, 54-12 in the annual cross-town classic at the Lincoln High Oval Friday night.

It was the Links Homecoming game, and the final prep game in the careers of 12 Link seniors who finally got their moments of glory this season.

First of all, there was Don Davis, the Links hard-working senior tailback, a consistent ground gainer all season, but a back who had seen pay dirt only two times.

Davis was going full stride in this contest, however, as he ran for four touchdowns and passed for two more.

Then there was Joe Gacusana, first rate Link end who was on the receiving end of four Link aerials—good for two touchdowns—who played a whale of a game on the defense.

But all in all, it was a great victory for the whole Link team and a tough one for the Rockets—with 14 seniors—to take on the chin.

The Links got things started midway in the first quarter when Davis tossed 43 yards to Gacusana for what was the beginning of the rout.

The Links added their second tally just 23 seconds before the end of the quarter when Ferdinand Ortiz recovered a Rocket fumble kickoff and marched to the North-east 15, Don Swanson went back to pass and fumbled the ball. Rocket center Warren Woods scooped it up and went 74 yards into the end zone to cut the margin to 47-12.

But the Links needed another touchdown to make the final point for the two clubs pass the old standard of 60 points when Lincoln High won, 60-0 in 1954.

And the touchdown was of the "whodunit" variety.

It was a pass from Davis and the Link ends, Paul Ude and Harold Kelly each wanted the touchdown as they both grabbed the ball on the goal line and took a two-man swan dive over.

From this angle, we're going to say that Ude grabbed first so he gets the touchdown.

Any way you look at it, it counted, and when Lewis added his fourth extra point the Links had taken their 14th win in the 16 year-old rivalry.

The game ended 1956 play for each school, the Links having finished up with a 3-6 record while the Rockets went down to their ninth defeat without victory.

Miss Jeanne Carrier, Link cheerleader and president of the Student Council, was crowned Lincoln High homecoming queen in half-time ceremonies.

In the third quarter the Links got another touchdown when Gacusana and tackle Larry Snyder blocked a punt on the Rocket six and Davis went the remaining distance to score and put the Links ahead, 47-40.

The Rockets finally came alive in the final quarter and scored.

After taking a fumble on the twice.

YOU BE THE QUARTERBACK

Head Football Coach,
Drake University

The Holy Cross coach has emphasized controlling the ball at all cost, but now you, the Crusader quarterback, are faced with a difficult situation.

You have just stopped Syracuse on your own three, and have the ball, first down and ten. A gentle breeze is blowing to your back, the score is 0-0 and your kicker can execute a quick kick.

Rate these choices 1, 2, 3 and 4:

Punt from punt formation.

Quick kick from regular formation.

Dive play through the line.

Slant off tackle.

CHADRON HITS WAYNE, 26-7

WAYNE—Chadron State Teachers College broke a 7-7 halftime deadlock and proceeded to score three touchdowns in the second half of play to take a 26-7 victory over Wayne State here Friday in a Nebraska College Conference game.

After Jim Schwartz had gone 67 yards to score for Chadron in the opening minutes of the game, Wayne came back to tie it with a 10-yard Nostlase going over from the Yomari Giants.

The Dodgers were locked in a 4-4 tie in the 11th when Robinson, their best clutch hitter, came to bat with junior Gilliam on second.

Manager Nobuyasu Mizuhara, who obviously had read of Robinson's game-winning, 10th-inning single that gave Brooklyn the 1956 World Series game 1-0, ordered his pitcher to walk Jackie.

Bessho shook off the sign. The Giants' catcher rusted to the mound. When the pitcher refused to follow instructions, the catcher ran to the dugout. After hurried conference with Manager Mizuhara, he ran back to the pitcher's mound. Still, no base on balls.

Jackie swung and rammed the ball to right center for the double that put the Dodgers ahead to stay. It made their record 11-4 with one tie in their exhibition tour.

Corn Estimate Rises To 18 Bu. Per Acre

Higher Northeast, Irrigated Yields Bring Brighter Outlook

... Second Highest On Record For National Crop

Higher than expected corn yields in northeast Nebraska and in irrigated areas were credited Friday for the three million bushel jump in the state's corn crop estimate as compared with last month's outlook.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture placed the estimate at 114,830,000 bushels or 18 bushels per acre. This is an increase of a half bushel per acre from the October figure.

Kenneth E. Logan, state-federal crop statistician, said the lack of a prolonged hot spell this summer saved a portion of the drought plagued corn in this state.

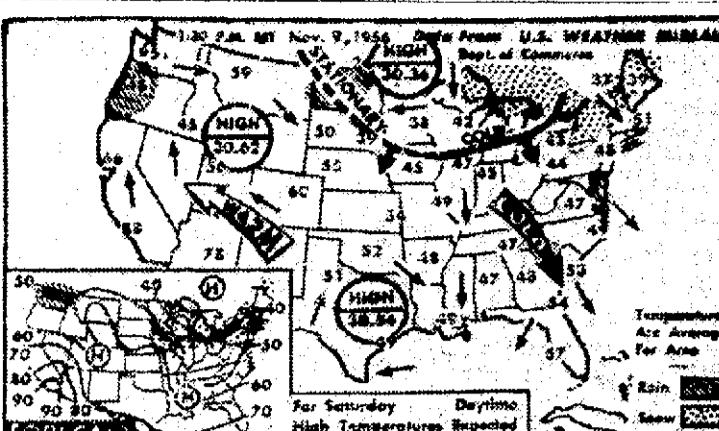

According to the Associated Press, the 1956 crop as forecast Friday was about seven million bushels above the 1955 crop of 107,324,000 bushels produced in 1955, but far below the 10-year average of 220,363,000 produced between 1945 and 1954.

The crippling effect of this year's drought was apparent in the corn outlook in Nebraska, compared with a national crop estimated to be the second largest of record.

U.S. Crop Record

And the U.S. entire crop production this year will be a near record. The department reported that crop production as of Nov. 1 showed increases in the previous month's estimates for corn, sorghum, grain, rice, tobacco, potatoes, sugar cane and some fruits.

New Missouri River Span Requested For Interstate

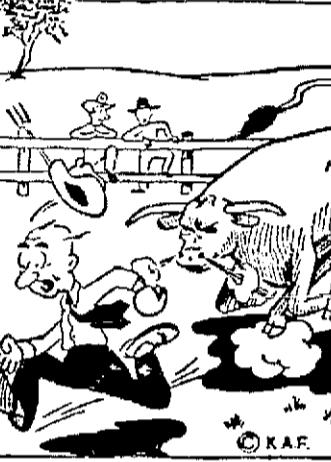

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa and Nebraska will jointly request the Federal Bureau of Public Roads to include construction of a third Missouri River bridge on the new interstate highway system between Council Bluffs and Omaha.

That was revealed here Friday by John G. Butter, chief engineer of the Iowa Highway Commission. Highway officials from both states already have requested crossings be made both north and south of the Council Bluffs city limits.

Butter said the new request will call for construction of a bridge between Avenue B in Council Bluffs.

There was no discussion when the two officials met, as to which route should be given preference.

Butter and L. N. Ress, chief engineer for Nebraska, viewed possible sites for all three crossings. The interstate highway in the Council Bluffs area calls for a crossing to be made north of Council Bluffs, and another one south of Council Bluffs.

Ress and Butter gave no indications of any disagreement in the choice of the route. The Iowa commission has previously announced plans to route the east-west superhighway to a point about two miles south of Missouri Valley. The bridge north of Council Bluffs would then carry that traffic.

From the Missouri Valley point, a spur would run south to hook up with a crossing south of Council Bluffs. This is the route which Nebraska originally preferred.

Butter emphasized Friday that "no priority" has been given in construction of either route.

There was no discussion when the two officials met, as to which route should be given preference.

Corn Estimate Rises To 18 Bu. Per Acre

Higher Northeast, Irrigated Yields Bring Brighter Outlook

... Second Highest On Record For National Crop

Higher than expected corn yields in northeast Nebraska and in irrigated areas were credited Friday for the three million bushel jump in the state's corn crop estimate as compared with last month's outlook.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture placed the estimate at 114,830,000 bushels or 18 bushels per acre. This is an increase of a half bushel per acre from the October figure.

Kenneth E. Logan, state-federal crop statistician, said the lack of a prolonged hot spell this summer saved a portion of the drought plagued corn in this state.

According to the Associated Press, the 1956 crop as forecast Friday was about seven million bushels above the 1955 crop of 107,424,000 bushels produced in 1955, but far below the 10-year average of 220,863,000 produced between 1945 and 1954.

The crippling effect of this year's drought was apparent in the corn outlook in Nebraska, compared with a national crop estimated to be the second largest of record.

U.S. Crop Record

And the U.S. entire crop production this year will be a near record. The department reported that crop production as of Nov. 1 showed increases in the previous month's estimates for corn, sorghum, grain, rice, tobacco, potatoes, sugar cane and some fruits. The second largest corn crop on record is expected to be 3,412,000 bushels, one per cent higher than the Oct. 1 estimate, five per cent more than last year, and 11 per cent above average. This would be a 44 bushel per acre yield.

Nebraska's grain sorghum crop was estimated at 12 bushels per acre or 10,968,000 bushels, only a few bushels higher than the month-ago forecast but nearly four million bushels higher than the 1955 crop. The 10-hour average grain sorghum crop is 3,556,000 bushels.

The states sugar beet crop was forecast at 15.5 tons per acre or a total production of 852,000 tons.

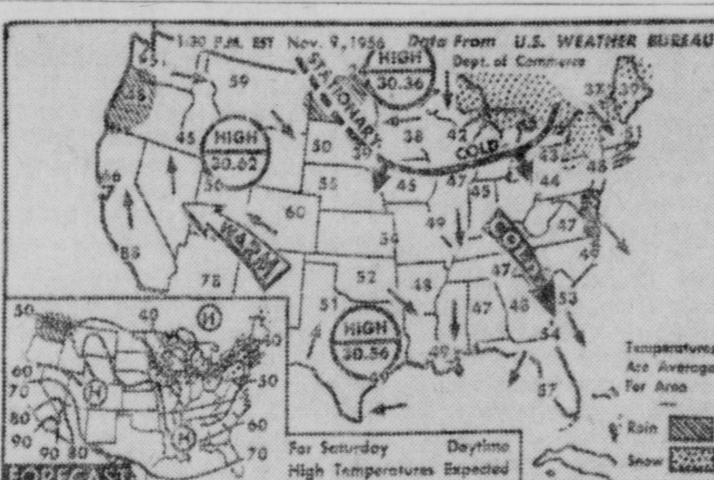

This is identical with the forecast of a month ago and more than 200,000 tons above the 1955 production.

The Nebraska fall potato crop was estimated at 160 hundredweight, the same as forecast a month ago. This is about 28,000 hundredweight above the 1955 crop.

GROUP TOLD HOW CITY SCHOOLS AID 'EXCEPTIONAL' CHILDREN

Defining the "exceptional" child as one who differs from the norm, Julius Hunmann, guidance director of the Lincoln Public Schools, Friday outlined what is being done in this city for those children.

He made the remarks at the one-day meeting of the Nebraska Council of Family Life and Education.

"The exceptional child is one who differs from the average in mental, physical, social or emotional characteristics to such an extent that he is unable to progress adequately from the regular school curriculum," Hunmann said.

Gifted Children

He emphasized that "exceptional" applies to the gifted child as well as the youngster who is below normal.

For the gifted child Lincoln schools provide early entrance, ability grouping, accelerated courses, special workshops, elective courses and special activities designed to stimulate their interests, he said.

Likewise, he said, the Lincoln school program offers regular classes for retarded children who need additional help in their studies.

Ike To Get Co-Operation —Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Johnson of Texas said Friday President Eisenhower would get constructive cooperation and a "minimum of partisanship" from the Democratic majority in the new Congress.

At the same time the tall Texan brushed aside speculation that Republicans might be able to take control of the Senate, where Democrats retained a slim 49-47 party margin in Tuesday's election.

"I'm confident that the Democrats will organize the Senate when it meets," Johnson told a crowded news conference. The 85th Congress assembles here Jan. 3.

Johnson agreed with his fellow Texan, House Speaker Rayburn, that their party would not offer its own legislative program.

Instead, he said, Democrats in the Senate and House will wait and see "what the President sends up" in his State of the Union message and then "support what's best for the country."

Ordinarily distance prevents interference, but something has carried the signals farther.

Now the highway patrol radio technicians are wondering what their broadcasts are doing to British television.

Kansas Minister Tells Candidates Need For Change

"This is a world of revolution and tension . . . one in which the minister's whole approach must be changed," the Rev. Roger I. Fredrikson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ottawa, Kan., told an audience of 60 young ministerial candidates at the opening banquet of the Baptist Conference of Ministry Friday night at the Second Baptist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Fredrikson emphasized the great opportunities for the Christian message among today's troubled people, but "in the last analysis," he said, "the success of the message depends upon the integrity of the minister — the man himself."

The three-day conference is being attended by young men from a seven central states area.

The opening banquet was launched with a welcoming address by Dr. Gordon Schroeder, pastor of the First Baptist Church and chairman of the conference.

Saturday's program, to be held at Cotter Student Center and the Second Baptist Church, will feature addresses by Dr. Lynn Leaveworth, director of theological education, American Baptist convention, New York City, and Dr. Paul Losh, president of Central State Baptist Seminary, Kansas City, Kan.

The conference will hold its concluding session Sunday morning.

New Zealand Will Join U.N. 'Police'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (INS) — New Zealand notified Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold Friday that it will contribute 300 men to the international police force.

New Zealand Ambassador Sir Leslie Munro, in a message to Hammarskjold, said his government planned to send units of land forces to participate in the U.N. "peace task force" in the Middle East.

Mrs. William Ramsey is chairman of the world's bazaar, and Miss Kate Field is co-chairman. The bazaar will feature imported gifts and unusual foreign foods.

Likewise, he said, the Lincoln school program offers regular classes for retarded children who need additional help in their studies.

BBC Goofs Up Kansas Patrol

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Radio engineers have found out what has been goofing up the Kansas Highway Patrol radio communications—it is the telecasts of the British Broadcasting Corp.

The patrol system and BBC telecasts are on the same wave channel.

The growl that has been wrecking Kansas patrol communications corresponds to the BBC Foreign Relations Committee the following day.

Sen. George (D-Ga), committee chairman, said in a telegram to Morse the committee would discuss the international situation in an "extremely important meeting."

Ordinarily distinct prevents interference, but something has carried the signals farther.

Now the highway patrol radio technicians are wondering what their broadcasts are doing to British television.

New Zealand Ambassador Sir Leslie Munro, in a message to Hammarskjold, said his government planned to send units of land forces to participate in the U.N. "peace task force" in the Middle East.

Wilson Doesn't 'Think There Is Any Probability' That Mideast Crisis Will Bring World War

WASHINGTON (INS) — Deafened by the news alert for U.S. armed forces, Secretary Charles E. Wilson said Friday night "I don't think there is any probability" that the Middle East crisis will explode into World War III.

In an exclusive interview with INS-Telenews, Wilson also said he "would think" Russia will be too busy putting down revolts behind the Iron Curtain to launch aggression elsewhere.

NAVY'S AMAZING
NEW ARCTIC FABRIC
Keeps you warm without bulk

Now you can hunt, fish, ski in perfect comfort in
ALLEN-A INSULAIRO (TM)
(Thermal Underwear)

The Navy needed a wonder-fabric — warm enough for far-below-zero weather, yet not heavy or bulky. Unusually absorbent so men could wear it indoors or in mild weather without sweating. And 100% laundry-proof.

Here's the fabric they developed — in well-made shirts and drawers especially designed for active men. Now you can shed extra layers of bulky, heavy outer clothing — dress lighter, have more freedom.

This new fabric is made of down-soft cotton (doesn't itch), knitted in unique 3-dimension pattern. Traps body heat in thousands of tiny "pockets" for perfect insulation. Rigorously tested for warmth in arctic conditions. Can be machine-washed, tumble-dried. Won't shrink out of size or stretch out of shape.
